Peer Gjoew Rasmussen appointed as Managing Director of Kuehne+Nagel Singapore & Malaysia

Singapore, July 12, 2021 – Kuehne+Nagel is pleased to announce that Peer Gjoew Rasmussen has been appointed Managing Director for Kuehne+Nagel Singapore and Malaysia, effective July 12, 2021.

Peer Gjoew Rasmussen will be responsible for overseeing the company's operations in Singapore and Malaysia. He will be based in Singapore.

In a logistics career spanning over two decades, Peer has held several leadership positions across Asia Pacific. Most recently, Peer was the Managing Director of Kuehne+Nagel India and previously assumed general management roles in China. He has also worked extensively in Thailand, Malaysia, Denmark and USA. With his vast international experience, Peer is well-positioned to lead the culturally diverse Singapore and Malaysia organisation.

Jens Drewes, President of Kuehne+Nagel Asia Pacific said: "I am delighted to have Peer on board to steer our Singapore and Malaysia business. His proven leadership combined with his rich knowledge of the trade, will ensure continued strategic growth and success to the company."

"With Singapore and Malaysia being geographically pivotal to regional trade, the opportunities are boundless. I am excited to work with the team to deliver the best-in-class logistics solutions and advance the Kuehne+Nagel Singapore and Malaysia's transformation journey," said Peer Gjoew Rasmussen.
