Kuehne + Nagel Group

Capital Markets Day 2017

Schindellegi / CH, September 20, 2017 – Today, Kuehne + Nagel is holding its 9th Capital Markets Day in London. Investors, analysts and the broader financial community will be provided with an update on the Group's direction as well as on major industry trends.

Changing consumer behaviour and the speed of technological developments are transforming traditional go-to-market approaches and logistics operations. Based on its market knowledge, customer proximity, industry experience and operational excellence Kuehne + Nagel sees promising prospects for strong growth resulting from new dynamics in underlying markets.

With "KN+NextGen", succeeding the "Focus + Excellence" initiatives as of 2018, Kuehne + Nagel will exploit the opportunities offered by digitalisation. Based on its successful business model Kuehne + Nagel's ambition is to continue to gain substantial market shares in the years to come. In addition, the Group will expand its service offering through new technologies and the creation of data-driven value chain services. Acquisitions have supported the growth initiatives in the past and will be an important option to accelerate the "KN+NextGen" programme.

Kuehne + Nagel will provide a webcast of the presentations of Dr. Detlef Trefzger, CEO, and Markus Blanka-Graff, CFO, which are scheduled from 9.30 hrs to 10.30 hrs GMT.
