Cédric Dulong appointed as President of Kuehne+Nagel Japan

Tokyo, JP, January 6, 2021 – Kuehne+Nagel, one of the world’s leading logistics companies is delighted to announce that Cédric Dulong has been appointed as President of Kuehne+Nagel Japan as of January 1, 2021. In this role, Cédric will be responsible for driving Kuehne+Nagel’s further expansion in Japan.

Cédric Dulong brings with him over 20 years of leadership experience and knowledge of the logistics industry.

Most recently, Cédric was Senior Vice President of Sales & Marketing for Kuehne+Nagel Asia Pacific. Before this role, he ascended through a series of positions in general management, operations and for the last 10 years in business development. He started with Kuehne+Nagel in Japan and spent his last 25 years in Asia.

“Japan is one of our key focus markets in Asia Pacific. I’m confident that Cédric’s in-depth knowledge of the industry and rich Asia experience will lead Kuehne+Nagel Japan in its next phase of growth and bring the company to greater heights,” said Jens Drewes, President of Kuehne+Nagel Asia Pacific.

Cédric Dulong said: “I am excited to be returning to Japan and work alongside with the Kuehne+Nagel Japan team. Building on the solid work done by the team, I look forward to delivering our industry-leading solutions to meet the needs of our Japanese and international customers, helping them in their growth and service excellence.”
