Kuehne+Nagel appoints Aaron Scott as National Manager for UK

Schindellegi / CH, November 18, 2025 – Kuehne+Nagel, a leading global logistics company, has appointed Aaron Scott as National Manager for UK, effective May 1, 2026.

Bringing three decades of leadership experience within logistics and supply chains, Scott will focus on strengthening the UK market position and growing the business with customers.

“I am excited to join Kuehne+Nagel, who is known in the industry for its excellent customer service and technological advancement. The ability to partner with customers, rethinking their supply chains and making them resilient is key and will drive growth in the future,” says Aaron Scott.

With an international career spanning Europe, including the UK, the Americas, Africa and APAC, Scott has in-depth knowledge in multiple industries, including Automotive, Technology and Retail.

In 2021, Aaron joined DB Schenker, where he advanced to become the CEO of the UK and Ireland Cluster. Following the DB Schenker acquisition, he became the SVP Contract Logistics for Belgium, Netherlands, UK & Ireland at DSV.

In his previous roles he has consistently delivered strong business results, demonstrated strong leadership skills and delivered on large-scale transformation projects.
